SAN FRANCISCO

Evidently believing they were playing safe when they hired Louis Eaton Jr., an eighteen-year-old deaf and dumb boy as junior janitor and delivery lad in the liquor department of the Snake Drug Store, 127-129 Kearny street, Bob Prior, manager, and John Jensen, prescription clerk, realized yesterday, according to S. F. Rutter, federal prohibition director, who raided the place, that Louis is a facile writer.

In Rutter's private office in the Custom House, where Prior and Jensen were taken under arrest, for two hours the deaf and dumb boy wrote letters to Rutter telling him all about what he had seen, but could neither hear nor talk about.

With his employers facing him, the lad silently uncovered to the prohibition director, according to Rutter, a story of the illicit manufacture of liquor in the store and described "silent partners" besides himself, who, Rutter believes, are three well-known capitalists of San Francisco.

W. O. Wissich, wealthy fish merchant, who was mentioned by the lad, was admitted by both Prior and Jensen to be interested in the drug store, Rutter stated after the interview.

The other names disclosed, Rutter declined to make public. He says warrants will be sought for all.

The raid on the Snake Drug Store followed the alleged purchase of whiskey and gin by Rutter's men from the accused manager and clerk without the formality of physician's prescriptions.

When Prior and Jensen were taken into custody they both declined to discuss the source from which they had secured a supply of synthetic gin seized as evidence.

It was then Rutter turned his attention to a small lad who was engaged in cleaning up the place. He found the boy could neither speak nor hear, but had eyes that observed everything—San Francisco Examiner.

The Deaf Citizens Protective League of California has been formed and sent out the following circular:—

To the Deaf of California:—
Do you drive an auto? If not do you expect to drive one? You may not now be expecting to drive an auto, but some day you likely will. So this circular concerns all the deaf of California, whether they drive an auto or not.

Do you realize that your privilege of driving an auto is now in peril? The license to drive which you now hold or may hope to hold is in danger of being taken away from you or denied to you.

Auto accidents have increased enormously in the past few years. The public is aroused. It is determined to check the evil, if possible. Amongst others it suspects deaf drivers to be fault. You know the deaf meet with few accidents and these accidents are nearly all due to carelessness or other circumstances rather than to lack of hearing. But the general public is not inclined to investigate the case of the deaf driver. There are too few of the deaf. The easiest way to get rid of the deaf driver would be to bar all deaf drivers, so they reason.

Already a wave of "reform" is sweeping over the East. The deaf are being restricted in their right in many states to operate automobiles. In New Jersey and Washington, D. C., no new licenses are being issued to the deaf. This wave is spreading West. It has reached Oregon. It is coming to California this spring. California is the great automobile state. Los Angeles is said to be the most congested auto district in the world.

Therefore, if we do not look out for our rights we may expect the laws of this state to rob us of our greatest pleasure. Join our league, contribute what you can to it, and see that the deaf as a class are not discriminated against, that they may use the automobile in business, and that the pleasures of touring are not denied them.

J. W. HOWSON, Chairman.

The following is extracted from its By-Laws:—

Its object shall be to protect the deaf of California from unfair motor vehicle legislation.

It shall consist of a board of six members, three to be chosen from San Francisco and contiguous territory, and three from Los Angeles and contiguous territory. A two-thirds vote of the entire membership of the board, in writing, shall rule on all questions. The league solicits contributions of not less than $5.00 from deaf motor vehicle drivers and sums of any amount from other persons. The moneys so collected shall be deposited in a bank to be selected by the board.

Contributions should be made only to authorized collectors, personally known to the donors, or sent direct to Wm. Howe Phelps, Treasurer, 545 So. St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, California.

PORTLAND, OREGON

Mr. Charles F. Dore, of St. Paul, Minn., was a visitor at the meeting of the Portland Frats on Saturday night, February 23d. He is a member of the St. Paul division No. 61, N. F. S. D. AMERICAN SCHOOL ALUMNI TRY TO BLOCK $250,000 GRANT TO MYSTIC SCHOOL.

PRESIDENT LAPIDES INSISTS OVERFLOW FROM ORAL SCHOOL SHOULD BE TRANSFERRED TO WEST HARTFORD INSTITUTION.—ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE INSPECTS PROPERTY

An energetic move by alumni of the American School for the Deaf at Hartford to block an appropriation of $250,000 requested by the Mystic Oral School for the Deaf for a dormitory came to light yesterday.

Michael Papides of New Haven, president of the American School for the Deaf Alumni Association announced that he had written to the appropriations committee of the Legislature urging that a bill to provide appropriation be killed.

"DOUBLE-DECK" BEDS

Due to an increase in its enrollment of pupils from sixty-six to ninety-seven, within the last year, the Mystic institution, which was taken over by the state two years ago, is now overcrowded. The dormitory space is so cramped that many of the children sleep in "double-deck" beds.

Mr. Lapides made the statement that the objection of the alumni of the Hartford institution was based on a belief that the state could save money by accommodating the overflow from the Mystic institution at the American School for the Deaf in this city. There are about 180 pupils at the new home of the latter institution in West Hartford, leaving room to accommodate about thirty-five more.

The American School is a private institution, which receives some state aid. The state appropriated $250,000 two years ago toward the cost of erecting the new building in West Hartford.

The Mystic school teaches lip-reading exclusively. Its methods of teaching are purely oral. Subjects are taught through speech and speechreading and, in special class, writing is used to a considerable extent. The children are encouraged to talk and read the lips at all times and no employee of the school is allowed to sign to the children.

Mr. Lapides wrote yesterday that the West Hartford school uses the combined system, oral and sign and finger-spelling. This he did in support of a contention that the education of children, started at the Mystic School could be continued in the event of the transfer of children from the Mystic school to West Hartford.

WOULD HOLD OWN PUPILS.

Authorities of the Mystic school desire to hold their own pupils. They have developed a home-like atmosphere about their institution which greatly impressed members of the appropriations committee, who visited it yesterday during a tour of inspection of five state institutions in New London County. It was found that, under the management of Superintendent Walker J. Tucker and Principal Helen E. Tucker, the Mystic institution has been brought up to a high standard of efficiency in the past two years. In addition to their request for a dormitory building, they have asked for an appropriation of $150,000 for maintenance for the next two fiscal years.

The Alumni of the American School do not oppose the Maintenance request. They insist, according to Mr. Lapides, that any money spent for a dormitory would be wasted.

The appropriations committee has assigned the requests of the Mystic school for public hearing on Wednesday February 28. Many of the alumni of the American School, being deaf-mutes, will not appear at the hearing, it is understood, but will bombard the committee with letters protesting against the appropriation.

The state board of finance has spoken highly of the work of the Mystic school.

BINGHAM ACCOMPANIES PARTY.

Acting Governor Bingham and Speaker Nickerson of the House accompanied the appropriations committee on its visit to the school yesterday. The visitors appeared to be greatly impressed by the work they saw being done in the class room.

Owing to the fact that the majority of the pupils have never heard their own voices, or those of others, it is a task requiring much perseverance and great patience to teach the children the rudiments of education. The inspection party passed through the different grades, from the kindergarten to the graduating class.

There were children not over 3 years old in the beginners' class, and some much older whose education had been neglected by their parents during the earlier years of their life.

There is a farm connected with the place which has more than paid for itself. The pupils do much of the work on the farm before and after school hours.

Strict supervision is given to the children's diet and there has been little sickness at the institution. Superintendent Tucker and his family, the teachers and officers, eat at the same table with the children and eat the same food. There are ten children and two adults at every table, and each teacher and officer is instructed to see that each child receives a sufficient amount of food and to see that he or she handles the table appointments properly. The system and the fact that the school is conducted in what has the appearance of a rebuilt farmhouse, creates a homelike atmosphere in the dining room.

Under the state regime, rhythm work has been introduced. Every class has a certain period each day spent at the piano. It was explained that this work is beneficial in promoting smoother, less monotonous and more spontaneous speech.—Hartford Courant February 18, 1923.

At the banquet arranged under the auspices of the Greater New York Branch of the National Association of the Deaf, in honor of the one hundred and thirty fifth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, one of the many speeches made was the report of the committee in charge of the "Gallaudet Statue Fund." A copy of the Statue of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet at Gallaudet College, is to be erected in Hartford, Ct.

The committee is headed by Dr. Thomas F. Fox. The total amount needed is five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). The committee have on hand four thousand five hundred ($4,500.00) so the balance is only five hundred dollars ($500.00).

A special committee was appointed to help speed up the work and raise the extra five hundred dollars ($500.00) before December 10th, 1923, so that the statue may be erected at the earliest date possible.

LOS ANGELES.

An unexpected combination of cold rain and wind storm visited the Southern California zone for about a week and then passed on, leaving snow on the top of a chain of mountains and one inch coat of frost on the ground and houses on the first of this month. The day was very clear and was the coldest day in the history of the weather bureau, the temperature dropping to 43 degrees above. Nice weather has since been experienced and is the same today. The sight of the snow on the mountains at a great distance is beautiful. Compared with this, the sight of the green groves bearing oranges is more beautiful. Auto driving among the sweet fragrant groves is fine and pleasant. All the oranges, by the way, are ripe now and are being picked. All packing houses on the outskirts of the city are now in full operation, packing oranges and sending them to all points of the world. When you visit our city you will find many places where they sell oranges and also many small drinking places where you can get a glass of orange juice for ten cents.

After several weeks of pleasant visiting with his family, Mr. E. Weller packed his suitcase and hied to Chicago on the 29th ult. Next Spring he will return here as a retired printer.

The local division, No. 27, held a regular monthly business meeting last Saturday night at Walker's auditorium. Vice President H. Germer taking the chair of President J. Barret, who is now in the east, and all members with the exception of a few absentees, being present. The meeting lasted one and a half hours, which was close to the former record.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund M. Price are moving. They have shaken the dust of their former neighborhood in favor of their daughter's brand new home with lawn, sidewalks, growing grass, and everything besides a double garage.

Mr. M. Norton paid Los Angeles another of his occasional visits, coming last Saturday to attend the meeting of the local division No. 27 from his Ventura ranch.

With the intention of remaining in this sunny land all winter, Mr. A. Dietzsch, formerly of Chicago, is visiting with his folks. He says he has good prospects in sight and then claims this as his home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Mercer have been under the weather for the past week, but are up and about again at this present writing.

So far as I have known there have been no serious accidents among the local deaf, except two, who were recently suffering with their injured fingers on the right hand. Miss M. Bible got the end of her finger badly cut while at work, which necessitated confinement to her home for two weeks. Mr. L. Peterson had the end of the finger crushed by a running bread machine, but he bravely stuck to his work.

Venice, Ocean Park, and Santa Monica were the interesting beach towns which Mr. C. Murday took in with his old college pal, E. Price, on the 28th ult. Before returning home they found, much to their disappointment, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. Dudley securely locked and all the shades down.

It sounds like an old chestnut to say that Southern California has more attractions, more comfort, more climate and less humidity than any other place in the country. This fact justifies the coming of tourists to Los Angeles in unlimited number.

Miss M. Peek and her constant companion, Miss Angle, left today for San Francisco, where they are to start on their voyage and a six months' tour of the Hawaiian Islands, Japan, and other European points.

Mr. Howard Woods has for some time been chaffed by his friends about his mustaches, which were as long as a humming bird's bill, and also his long hair, but he took it good naturedly for the most part. To-day he is minus the mustaches and his hair is well trimmed. His father, by the way, was recently elected councilman of a town called South Westgate near here.

That the city of Los Angeles grieved over the death of Wallace Reid, one of the noted film actors, proves the fact that he was everybody's friend and was well-liked by everybody, owing to his sunny disposition and because of being big-hearted. He was on the road to recovery, but suddenly took a relapse and died soon after. His remains are gone, but his fame will endure.

Quite a large number of the Silent sportsman spent the week-end at Tia Juana during the latter part of last month and returned home greatly disgusted with the things they saw there. It is believed that that place will some day be closed for good, as it is a direct cause of much of the Los Angeles crime.

The police force is working hard to get the city cleaned of such crooks. To get rid of being all alone at home while their husbands were attending their lodge, about twenty-five ladies enjoyed their "Hen" party at Mrs. W. Ward's residence last Saturday night. While they were talking and laughing, two gentlemen, as "Roosters," appeared and surprised them. But they were cheered up by the serving of refreshments and went home having enjoyed the party.

The Deaf Autist.

The Oregon Association of the Deaf, which was organized in July, 1921, is endeavoring to prevent any bill to prohibit any deaf person from driving their own auto, but we hear from Salem that such a measure is not aimed directly at the deaf-mutes, but appears to have in mind persons whose actions are dependent upon the sense of hearing.

We understand that if such a law is passed it will affect every deaf person. The Oregon Outlook reads the bona fide deaf are wholly independent of the sense of hearing, are actuated in driving autos as well as in doing anything else, wholly by the sense of sight. The Outlook continues to say: We think that any bill that debars the deaf from driving should not be passed. A deaf person with clear sight is as trustworthy as the wheel as is any hearing person with perfect hearing, other mental qualities being equal. Of course, we can not predict what the outcome will be, but the situation requires mighty tactful handling, and as the Washingtonian reads: The right of equality is granted them in our constitution, and it should not be overridden by a few men, who would make laws with the ridiculous idea that the more laws the more safety. To tell the truth there is room for every body in the universe, and if every body would be made to do his part, there would be no such thing as accidents, and remember we claim the deaf drivers as a rule are good drivers, and also careful drivers, and we learn that the blind "see" by the sense of touch and in sense of feeling, which is highly developed in adult persons, and they are able to feel noises where the hearing person must hear them. Many persons wonder how the deaf can tell when they puncture a tire, or when trouble develops in their motors. It is very simple. The deaf feel the trouble quite a quickly as the hearing can hear it, and are not handicapped as it is commonly supposed when he has a break down. The Washingtonian goes on to say that there is one time and only one when the ordinary driver depends on his hearing to avoid an accident. That is when a car passes from behind, and sometimes the driver in the rear will sound his horn so as to be heard. More often the driver neglects to do this, or the horn is not loud enough to attract attention, and some very bad accidents occur.

The deaf avoid this complication by using a mirror, which shows the road behind him, and sees the passing car, no matter how much the noise is or how weak the sound of the horn is.

The deaf of the States of Washington and Oregon, their friends and all, who love fair play, justice and equality, whether they possess automobiles or not, should rise up in defense of the deaf in their fight for equality under the law, and do their part in defeating any foolish legislation aimed to destroy their rights, and we are confident they will do so.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reid, 1535 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

There was a large attendance at All Souls' Church for the Deaf on Sunday afternoon, February 18th. Bishop Davenport, from the Diocese of Eastern Maryland, officiated and preached the sermon, which Mr. Joseph Lipsett interpreted in signs. The Bishop then confirmed the following persons: James Ellsworth Forter, (Mrs.) Annie Mary Foster, Bion Bentley Firth, William Barthold and William Ellwood Foster. Two other persons were to receive the rite, but they failed to appear. Mr. W. M. Smaltz prepared the class. A celebration of Holy Communion followed with the Bishop as Celebrant.

After the service the Bishop remained long enough to the meet the deaf people.

The Photo Chromotype Engraving Co., on February 3d, gave a banquet to five of its oldest engravers who worked for the company for thirty or more years, at 1620 North Broad Street. One of the engravers was our Mr. Otto Koenig and he reports a most enjoyable time. Mr. Koenig came originally from Germany, and his lived in Philadelphia ever since, we believe.

Miss Emma Koenig, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Koenig, graduated from the Girls' Normal school and received a teacher's diploma on January 31st.

Mr. Koenig and family have engaged passage to Bermuda and except to leave next March 24th. According to a speech made by Dr. Cronier before the Lutheran Social Union and reported in the Philadelphia Record recently, he thinks there are no deaf persons in the bootlegging business. Good report of the deaf as a whole; but a facetious writer asked us, "How could they hear any one speak easy?"

Mr. Harry E. Stevens left the city on Saturday to hold services at Allentown, Easton and Reading, successively for Rev. F. C. Smielan. He will return about the middle of this week.

After waiting many years, Mr. Koenig has electric current installed in his home and now feels its great convenience; for he does not worry about the scarcity of coal, since his twin electric heater gives him an abundance of warmth. When one first sees the light there is usually joy and satisfaction.

Washington Houston seems to have escaped pneumonia by a hair breadth. He was confined at home for two weeks or more and is just out again. One at his age had better keep on the safe side these wintry days.

Miss Dorothy Saunders, of Washington, D. C., passed Sunday, 18th, under the parental roof.

Dorothy E. Pollock, aged five years, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Pollock, died from an attack of Scarlet Fever on Saturday, February 17th, after three weeks' illness.

Ash Wednesday service was held in All Souls' Church for the Deaf on Wednesday evening, February 14th, with Mr. Smaltz as preacher and Mr. Lipsett making the responses. After this a Lenten service will be held every Thursday evening, beginning at 7:45 o'clock and ending at 8:45, or before leaving time for the regular meeting of the Cleric Literary Association.

Mr. Smaltz announced at the Ash Wednesday service that, by request, he will devote his sermons during Lent to an exposition of the Lord's Prayer, using each sentence for a text for the series. His first talk was on "Our Father, who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name."

The series promises to be very instructive, and should induce good attendances every week.

On Thursday evening, 15th inst., before the Cleric Literary Association, Mrs. G. T. Sanders gave an interesting account of the discoveries in King Tutankhamen's tomb, about which so much interest centers in the papers at present. Possibly, the lecture was given a little too early, for the 3000 years old petrified mummy of Mr. Tut, the supposed oppressor of the Children of Israel in Egypt, was not to be found until several days after, if anything remained.

Mr. Leonard R. Wilson, second son of Mrs. Helen R. Wilson, who for several years managed the big movies house at 11th and Lehigh, known as the Lehigh Palace, has been appointed to an important position at the Stanley Theatre, 16th and Market Streets, a bigger house.

Rev. Dr. Charles B. DuBell, the popular rector of St. John's P. E. Church, Camden, has accepted a call to St. Simeon's Church at 9th and Lehigh Streets. The deaf of Camden who have their Mission at St. John's will miss him greatly, though they may still see him occasionally in Philadelphia.

At the meeting of the Cleric Literary Association, February 22d, Mrs. G. T. Sanders gave some stories of Washington, after which she was followed by others on the same subject. They were Messrs. Lipsett, Reider and Leitch, Mrs. Syle, Mr. Wall and Mr. Sanders. The latter simply complimented the Association and those in attendance for the very pleasant evening that was had.

Our sick people, Rev. Mr. Dantzler and Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ziegler, are holding their own at present.

"Veteran" McKinney, while on his way to All Souls' Parish House last Thursday evening, 22d, in his haste to cross Broad Street, stumbled over some obstacle and fell on the street. Fortunately, he was not seriously injured, and we congratulate him for it.

Mr. Carl Bohner and Mr. Warren M. Smaltz, both graduates of the Mt. Airy School, are continuing their studies, the former at Columbia University and the latter at the Philadelphia School of Divinity. They are both very promising young men.

Samuel Nonnenmacher and Jacob B. Tshudy, both of Lancaster, Pa., and Mr. Moore, of Harrisburg, were visitors to All Souls' on February 25th.

Mrs. George Zang and Mrs. John Farrel trolleyed to Easton, Pa., on Sunday, February 25th, to call on the Riegel family. They returned home at night.

Weekly Lenten services are held at All Souls' Church every Thursday at 7:45 P.M. All welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl N. Solov received an addition to their family on February 15th. It is a son.

HARTFORD, CT.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Durian of the American School have the sympathy of the community in the sudden death of their four-year-old son Vincent, who had entered school this year. With scarcely any warning the child died of double pneumonia, being sick only a few hours.

The Connecticut legislature is in session and is asked to appropriate $250,000 for buildings for the Mystic Oral School. The enrollment at the Oral School is now ninety-seven, and it is claimed that the dormitory space is so crowded that double decker beds have to be used. The appropriations committee visited the School February 17th. The Alumni of the American School through Michael Lapides of New Haven, their energetic president, is fighting this appropriation on the ground that there is adequate room at the American School to accommodate thirty five more deaf children. The hearing on the bill will be before the appropriations committee on Wednesday, February 28th.

Another proposition which has already passed the senate is the day-school idea, giving towns the authority to start special classes for the deaf where five or more can be collected, the state to pay 35 percent of the salary of the special teacher required. This bill has the backing of the State board of education. There has not been any particular demand for this bill, and with the adequate facilities afforded by the American School, there is no necessity for it. The state authorities are clamoring for economy, and with a $500,000 plant just completed for the deaf, the proposed move is an unnecessary additional economic burden.

There has never been any formal dedication of the American School, and plans have been made for such an event in March, on or about the 27th, with President Percival Hall of Gallaudet College as chief orator.

The Benevolent Society for the Deaf, which usually holds a masquerade ball in February to celebrate its anniversary, changed the program this year by having a dinner.

Announcement has been made that the American School basketball team will meet the New Jersey Deaf School team, at the West Hartford town Hall in March, and the girls of the Panwood School will play against the American School girls at the same time and place. This will attract a large crowd.

Miss M. Emma Atkinson and her mother have moved into their pleasant new home on Brace Road, West Hartford, and four of the teachers from the School have taken rooms with them. They have had trouble securing enough fuel, but have at last received a sufficient supply.

SEATTLE

The next Convention of the Washington State Association of the Deaf will be held in Spokane July 2, 3, 4, 5, 1923. Announcements have been sent out by Mr. John E. Skoglund, the Chairman of the Local Committee. The Association is raising funds to build a Home for Aged and Infirm Deaf at some future time. It has around $1800 in its strong box, most of which is invested in U. S. Bonds.

Last fall and winter there were persistent rumors that legislation to prevent the deaf from driving automobiles would be enacted by the Legislature at Olympia. Mr. J. H. O'Leary, of Spokane, president of the State Association, got busy, lined up his forces to fight the proposed legislation, and set scouts to watch for any attempt of the kind. The sessions of the Legislature are already more than half over, and so far the scouts have not reported even a trace of the dangerous animal. Possibly he got a view of Jim O'Leary's big club, and concluded it was safest not to venture out in the open at this time.

The Guild of the Mission for the Deaf of St. Mark's Episcopal church, of which Mrs. Joe Kirschbaum is President, gave a social Feb. 17th at the home of the Hansons. Various novel tricks and games were brought out. Then there was a fishing pond, fortune telling, and a chance wheel. The fishing pond was soon empty, and several volunteers to go out for additional supplies to replenish the pond, so great was the interest. The chance wheel gave every one a chance for a nickel to get articles worth several times that amount, of course with some blanks between. Everything was sold, and there was a call for more, and considerably more might have been disposed of. The object of the sale, however, was not so much to raise money as to provide a good time for those attending. Refreshments, consisting of hot-dox sandwiches, coffee, cake, and ice cream, were sold at a nickel a portion, and quickly disappeared. Alice Hanson, as a gypsy fortune teller, brought joy and consolation with occasional heartaches to lovelorn youth and bashful maiden. The evening wound up with some impromptu dancing. Several University girls by their presence and hearty participation added to the enjoyment of the evening. About thirty were present, and all declared they had a good time.

Mr. Roy Harris went to Wenatchee last fall. Being a good carpenter he readily secured work. But the continuous sub-zero weather east of the mountains put a crimp to building operations, and Roy decided to come back to Seattle, where the mild weather permits of outdoors work the year round. He secured work, and we hope he will stay here.

The many friends of Mrs. Barbara Wilfang surprised her on her birthday with the gift of a handsome Oxford Bible. She is sixty-seven years old, but as spry and active as most people many years younger.

Mr. Oscar Sanders recently received a tempting offer from California to play ball. He went down there to investigate. But the attractions of the Puget Sound country proved too strong for him, and he is now back here. We hope he will stay here, for he is popular with every body.

Mr. Andrew Genner has secured a position on the Shopping News, a new paper published as an advertising medium by the leading merchants and distributed free in Seattle homes.

Miss Jessie Bushy is now in Salt Lake City for an indefinite stay. Many of her friends here would like very much to see her back in Seattle.

Mr. Hiram N. Gilkinson recently came to Seattle from South Dakota, and is making his home with a sister. He is a chair polisher by trade, and works in a furniture factory. He is also interested in the collection of rare postage stamps. He was educated at the Ohio school, and knows most of the old teachers there, as well as many of the prominent deaf in the middle west.

Seattle deaf have been looking forward to a visit from the Rev. Geo. F. Flick, of Chicago. We hope he will be able to come soon.

Mrs. August Koberstein, who has been confined in the tuberculosis ward of the Firlands Sanitarium nearly two years, is much improved and is now home again with her husband and family. Her friends are planning to give her a birthday surprise on Feb. 25th.

Rev. Geo. W. Gaertner, pastor of the Lutheran Church, has been in the hospital for an operation for appendicitis. According to latest reports he is doing nicely, and we hope he will soon be able to resume his work among the deaf.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Otha Minnick has been sick with Scarlet Fever at the Firlands Sanitarium, but is improving, and will soon be out again.

The Board of Directors of the Puget Sound Association of the Deaf have loaned $125.00 to the Lutheran church to help pay off the debts of the church.

Mr. Bert Haire is making good wages as box maker and packer. His home is nearly paid for, and he is planning other improvements later.

Mr. Carl Garrison, besides assisting Mr. Root in his printing business, is writing life insurance as a side line. He is special agent for the Northern Life, and several deaf have taken out policies in that company.

DETROIT.

News items for this column, and new subscriptions to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL will be received by R. V. Jones, 2347 Lycaete Avenue, Detroit, Mich.

It is no easy matter to create news items from pure imagination, or guess work.

Therefore, we again appeal to you for help—just a few lines on a post-card will do the trick, and you will be pleased with the results.

We got out of a sick-bed to write this letter, as we have been under the "magic" (?) spell of the Grippe for the past week or so, and was finally compelled to take to our bed Sunday evening.

So if this falls short of your expectations, or seems rather flat, just charge it to the Grippe, that is taking the "pep" out of everybody around these parts.

The Dowgic, Mich., correspondent for the Detroit Free Press, under date of February 14th, says: "Henry Clark, 50 years old, a workman, was killed Tuesday by a Michigan Central train, while walking on the tracks. He was deaf."

There was a very pleasant and entertaining surprise party given in honor of Mrs. Samuel Orenstein, at her home, 526 East Hancock Ave., Saturday evening, February 17th. Everyone enjoyed themselves, and Mrs. Orenstein was well remembered. Mrs. Ralph Hubun managed the affair.

The Clover Club met at the honor of Mrs. Edward Ball, on Wednesday afternoon, February 14th, and enjoyed their usual game of pedro, and other stunts.

Mrs. R. V. Jones captured the first prize, a beautiful amber colored necklace; Mrs. Horace B. Waters carried away the second prize, a fine decorated dish; Mrs. J. G. T. Berry got the booty prize, a bottle-shaped cake of fine toilet soap. Other contests were indulged in, and prizes awarded the winners, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Ball, being something of a wag, wrapped up some of her own household articles to fool the prize winners into the belief that they were getting something "swell," only to find when removing the paper that they were "sold," the articles being wrapped up only to create a laugh.

Mrs. Sadofski was an active aid in inventing some of the games. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Hellers, on the 28th of February.

Master Robert Hellers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter N. Hellers was given a birthday party by his little friends on February 12th. He received quite a few presents, and an enjoyable time was had by the little folks.

Another very enjoyable and entertaining birth-day party was given to Mrs. S. A. Goth, at her home 2245 Harding Ave., Saturday evening, February 17th. Mrs. Goth had been coaxed to the movies by Mrs. Ulrich, while her friends quietly gathered in her home and sat in the dark dining room. When she returned and switched on the lights, the surprise was complete.

Refreshments were served, games indulged in, and contests for prizes, and Mrs. Goth was well remembered by her friends in the way of suitable and useful gifts for the occasion; and, after Saturday night had passed into Sunday morning, the guests all departed well satisfied with their evening's fun.

One day last week, Mrs. Edward Ball started for Royal Oak, on a visit to Mrs. J. G. T. Berry, and when she reached Woodward Ave., she hailed a Royal Oak Bus, but it flew by like a comet. Undismayed, she waited for the next one, which also gave her the "shake."

This aroused her Napoleonic will power, and she determined to stop the next one or die in the attempt. So when what she thought was another bus appeared in sight, she gesticulated wildly until it came to a stop, and she was just about to express a satisfied sigh, when she discovered it was a funeral car! Not being just ready for the cemetery, she waved it on, and waited patiently for the Royal Oak bus.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Brown, having completed their cosy home at 19212 Danbury Ave., a committee of their friends, headed by Mrs. Thomas J. Kenney as chairman, concluded that it needed the warmth of friendship to make it a homey home, and issued invitations to their many friends to go out and help warm the place up. They all responded with a right good will and filled the house with their friendly presence from parlor to kitchen, with an overflow of the men folks into the basement.

The affair was one of the most successful and enjoyable of the season, and the guests left a beautiful and lasting remembrance of the occasion in the shape of an electric floor lamp, which will in years to come shed the soft mellow light of their friendship upon Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Refreshments were served, and quiet games were indulged in till Father Time warned that a new day was at the door, when all departed for home perfectly happy, but none more happy than Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who are at last snugly settled in a home of their own.

Mr. Horace B. Waters, who has received a license from the Bishop to act as lay reader under Rev. Dr. Charles, held his first service in that capacity at the St. John's Parish House last Sunday, and though he has been out of practice for the past three years, he performed his duties creditably well, and there is no doubt whatever that, with encouraging attendances, we will have a lay reader that we can all be proud of.

There will be a mass meeting of the deaf at the G. A. R. Hall on Grand River Avenue, opposite the Detroit Creamery Bldg., on Sunday afternoon, March 4th, at 3 P.M., under the chairmanship of Mr. Ivan Heymansson, when Mr. Geo. F. Tripp, of Flint, will address the deaf, explaining the workings of the Michigan Association of the Deaf, their objects, and the general welfare fund for all the deaf of the State. This concerns ALL the deaf, and we hope they will come in from the surrounding towns as well as from the city of Detroit itself, for it is a vital issue to all deaf automobile drivers, as well as others. Better come.

The writer of this column was handed an article clipped from the Detroit News, which was written by John M. Orr, who belongs to the Hard of Hearing Club, in which he stated that there were many deaf unfit to drive automobiles.

I answered him at length in the Detroit Sunday News of February 11th, on page 8, in the Public Letter Box. The article is too long for this column, so I leave it for you to look up in the News.

Japanese Auctions.

In Japan they have a queer way of holding auctions without the noise attendant in such affairs in our country. The auctioneer puts up the object to be sold and asks for bids on it. Each bidder writes his highest price on a paper, folds it and deposits it in a box. The box is opened at the end of a specified time, and the article is given to the one who has offered the most for it. Thus people are kept from bidding more than the worth of a thing, since excitement is eliminated.—Selected.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reinke, of North Bergen, N. J., on February 4th. Mother and baby doing well. Mrs. Reinke was formerly Mildred Smith, OHIO.

February 17th, '23—Seventeen members showed up at the last meeting of the Advanced Society.

Treasurer Ohlemacher in his monthly report showed that the total of the two funds, Society's and Home, amounted to $427.41. Most of the time was taken up with suggestions and talks about the Valentine Social to be held this afternoon and evening.

There will be a basket ball game in the afternoon between the Akron Silents and a team recently organized among city deaf and known as the Columbus Silents. Members of the Society were asked to buy tickets to the game.

Messrs. Herman and Brady Cook were admitted as members of the Society. A letter of thanks for Christmas favors from Mr. and Mr. Osborn, employees of the Home, was read.

The Ladies and Society failed to have a quorum at its meeting at Trinity Chapel on the evening of the 15th, because of the severe cold weather, coupled with some of the members being down with colds or flu, and on this latter account it was decided to postpone the annual reception to the retiring and incoming officers scheduled for the 24th inst. until further notice.

For the second time this month we are called upon to chronicle a death at the Home for Deaf, which occurred yesterday. Mrs. Angelina Turner is the victim. She is no relative of Martin Turner, who passed away on the 3d of February. Her husband, Martin Turner, died nearly two years ago. Both had entered the Home from Cincinnati, Ohio, May, 1905.

Mrs. Turner was taken with a cold last week, other complications followed, and because of the advanced age she was not equal to with stand the combat. Mrs. Turner was of a cheery disposition and her absence will be missed by the residents of the Home. She was about 80 years old at the time of death.

A married daughter living near the Home is the only surviving member of the family.

The funeral service is to be held tomorrow, and will be conducted by Mr. J. B. Showalter.

Mr. William Friend went over to Pittsburg, on the 8th inst., for a ten days' visit to his son and friends over there.

Mr. John Fryfogle, employed at the school, helped to swell the attendance at the Canton, O. Social last Saturday, given for the benefit of the Home. Fifty deaf attended the function, and besides giving the people a good time, a nice sum was realized. He reports the deaf up there all doing well.

The Eastern Ohio Advance Society, Bellaire, has chosen these officers to serve for 1923: President, S. W. Corbett; Vice President, Frank Burtoft; Secretary, E. Conway; Treasurer, Wm. F. Robb; and Trustees, Joe LaMonte, L. Humes and Wm. Schubach.

Chaplin Watson, a well-known deaf man, of Wheeling, W. Va., and a bricklayer by occupation, was stricken by paralysis on December 30th, and died January 29th. He was sixty eight years of age.

Clarence E. Corbett, twenty-seven years of age, and a nephew of S. W. Corbett, has been appointed by the Mayor of Bellaire Police Chief.

Dr. Patterson goes to Springfield, O., on the 24th inst., to give a lecture for the benefit of the N. F. S. D. Division there, and on the 22d, Mr. MacGregor leaves for Delavan, Wis., where, on the evening of February 23d, he is to give a lecture before some club or society. He comes back to Chicago on the 24th, and in the evening under the auspices of the Athletic Association of the Deaf will entertain the Windy City deaf who may call at the club house with a lecture.

We hope the boys there will ward off the germs of the Flu and Grippe, and so allow him to return home well and sound.

February 24, 1923—The Ladies' Aid Society's monthly meeting was held at Trinity Parish House on the 16th inst. A quorum was not present, because of the cold weather and sickness of some of the members. However, the rules of the Society were suspended and business proceeded.

Miss Edith-Biggar reported visits made to sick members, among them Mrs. Wm. G. Wheeler, of Marion, who underwent an operation in Grant Hospital, Columbus. Miss Bessie Edgar, who had been sick, was sent flowers.

Because of the illness of quite a number of members, the annual reception to the retiring and incoming officers was postponed for some future time. Some minor business was transacted and then the meeting adjourned. From reports given the society had an enrollment during the year of 56 members, reduced to 54 by one death and one marriage. Five new members were added during the year. The receipts for the year amounted to $350.14 and expenses $566.99. The expenses for the Home were new laundry outfit $441.25, other expenses, $84.12; making a total of $525.37. These members were present at every meeting of the society during the year: Mrs. George Black, Mrs. George Clum, Miss Bessie Edgar, Mrs. J. Eshelman, Miss Cloa G. Lamson, Miss Nora Patterson, Mrs. Walter Wark, Miss Ethel Zell, Mrs. Wm. H. Zorn and Mrs. J. C. Wiuenmiller.

School was not dismissed for Washington's birthday, Thursday. Instead Friday was made a holiday. The change was made so that Columbus pupils could spend from Thursday evening to Monday morning at their homes, and also allow teachers, who chose to do so and lived out-of-town, could take the advantage and visit their homes.

Thursday evening the pupils were given an entertainment prepared under the direction of a committee of three teachers and with pupils as actors.

As it was of the Wild West character with Indians garbed in their regalia, dancing and swinging their tomahawks, it surely pleased the small boys and girls. "The Two Johns" in their acts also produced much laughter. The play was called:

A DAUGHTER OF THE DESERT

The Wednesday Evening Club, which has been working for about a year to secure a moving picture machine for the residents of the Home for Deaf, gave an exhibition last evening in the chapel of the school with a machine that will probably be secured later, or as soon as the requisite amount of funds can be secured. Views of George and Martha Washingtons, scenes about Mt. Vernon, and a Pathe reel of a play were given by the agents of the machine, and they were good too. The instrument is very simple to manage. After the show was over the agent explained to the committee that is to look after the purchasing of the instrument the workings of it and terms. We hope matters can be arranged so the machine can be purchased soon, put to work and give the residents some recreation before the spring days are here.

There has been much sickness at the Home, caused by the prevailing epidemic of colds. Even Mrs. Chapman, the Matron, succumbed this week and was ordered by the doctor to bed. Others confined are Mrs. Crumpton, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Oblinger, Miss Higgins and Miss Poyntz, and, as we were writing this, a visitor to the Home just returned states that Mrs. Vanderveer was stricken last night with paralysis and is in a critical condition. She is the oldest of the people there, being in her 87th year, and has been a resident since 1898.

A card from Mr. George Kinkel, who a few weeks ago, went down to Florida for the benefit of his health, has him at Tampa, where he will remain a few days. He is improving slowly. It's cold down there and he says he must wear his overcoat.

A Miss Pancake, of this city, gave a concert on the evening of the 19th at the Elks Home. It was for the benefit of the Women's Department Heating Fund. Some time ago Miss Pancake offered to undertake this, and it was accepted. There was no expense to the Board, whatever. It was generous of the lady to undertake it and the board appreciates the help thus given.

There is some talk that Mr. W. E. Hoy may be come a member of the Dayton Silent Baseball Club as a coach or player. The club has been in existence for a year or two, but some time ago a Mr. Hatfield, its manager, took steps to make it more stable and play other clubs in a professional way. A wealthy gentleman has agreed to furnish the club the baseball paraphernalia.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

WEDDING BELLS

About two hundred deaf and hearing friends witnessed the wedding ceremony that united Miss Sarah Kremen to Mr. Julius Seandel, at the Temple Neboth, on Washington Heights, at Broadway and 150th Street, on the afternoon of Thursday, February 22d.

At three-thirty the groom, with his father and mother on either side, passed slowly up the right aisle of the temple. At a short distance followed the bridesmaid, Miss Rebecca Champagne, preceding the bride and her father and mother. Slowly the wedding party marched to the altar, where Rabbi Aaron Elsemann intoned the sacred marriage ritual, which was interpreted by the brother of the groom by the manual alphabet.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride, leaning on the arm of the groom, headed the wedding party down the left aisle, and proceeded to the reception room, where they were warmly congratulated and received the felicitations of the guests, after which, showered by rice, in which the "Blue Bird" girls were particularly active, automobiles were taken and the happy couple passed out of sight. It is understood their honeymoon will embrace a couple of weeks in the Green Mountain State.

The bride was attired in a dress of pale grey crepe de chine, trimmed with pink crepe de chine roses. Her hat was mushroom shape of the same material, matching the dress. She wore a corsage bouquet of lavender orchids.

Miss Champagne, the bridesmaid, was gowned in rose crepe de chine, with hat to match, and a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Both bride and groom were educated at Fanwood, and graduated with honors. Mr. Seandel is a printer by occupation and has held a steady position at high wages ever since he left school. Mrs. Seandel is a very intelligent young lady, of exceptional comeliness of feature and symmetry of form.

Both she and her husband are very popular among the younger set of deaf-mutes of Greater New York and its vicinity, and the love and good wishes of their host of friends go with them on their happy journey on the sea of matrimony.

Among those present were Misses Berry and Townsend, former teachers of the bride at the New York Institution, Mr. and Mrs. Osmond Loew, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Sturtz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gillen, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Goldfogel, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe of Newark, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller, Misses Vera Hoffman, Anna Hoffman, Anna Jacobs, Connie Pizzatos, Evelyn Miller, Anna Lange, Rose Wax, Clara Sylvester, Sallie Karten, Bessie Frey, Messrs. Sam. Frankenheim, Edwin A. Hodgson, A. Fliegenheimer, Emanuel Souweine, Max Hoffman, Charles Schatzkin, Abe Hynes, Michel Ciavolino, Leopold Frey, Charles Sussman, Hyman Gordon, Keith W. Morris and Leon Winig, besides a great many hearing ladies and gentlemen whose names could not be obtained.

Bronx Division, No. 92, opened wide its curtains for the year of 1923 with a Necktie and Apron Party at the Northside Republican Club in the Bronx, February 21st.

Matty Blake, our professional entertainer, was chairman, and although a small hall he managed to paint the evening in all colors indicating a good old time.

Among the prize winners for the prettiest apron and their partners were: First, Mrs. Graham with basket and Mr. Lynch, ink-well stand; second prize, Mrs. L. Steinhause, fancy vase, and Mr. Pease; third prize, Miss Hamilton, pair of gloves, and Mr. McNally, a cigar tray.

Watch out for April 28th! Something new and a merry good time for all, "Chinatown Evening," the hit of the season. Officers of Bronx Division, No. 92, for 1923 are: President, Joseph F. Graham; Vice-President, Joe. Boyan; Secretary, Jack M. Ebin; Treasurer, William Hansen; Board of Directors, John L. O'Brien, Joe. Martin, and Frank Rubans; Director, Joe. Leghorn.

XAVIER ALLIED NOTES

Just because a certain dental surgeon on Flushing, L. I., way, has been getting richer at the expense of everybody's friends, Sylvester J. Fogarty, accounts for the lapse in activities of the Xavier De l'Espee Brooklyn branch.

Next month, however, President Fogarty has arranged a lecture by William H. May, B.S., honor graduate of St. Joseph's and also of Xavier College, from whence he migrated to Gallaudet to finish his college days. Mr. May's subject had not yet been announced, but that it will be worth while, those who read this may be assured.

FANWOOD.

The pupils and teachers were sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Leale, wife of one of our Board of Directors who is chairman of the Committee on Instruction. Mrs. Leale made occasional visits to the Institution with her husband, who is a devoted friend of the deaf and a very frequent visitor. Mrs. Leale died on Friday, February 23d.

The funeral services were held at St. Bartholomew's Church, at 50th Street and Park Avenue, on Monday morning, February 26th. Several members of our Board of Directors, and also Principal Gardner and Mrs. Gardner, attended the funeral services. The subjoined obituary is taken from the New York Herald of Saturday, February 24th.

"Mrs. Rebecca Medwin Leale, 80, whose husband, Dr. Charles A. Leale, was the first person to reach Abraham Lincoln after he was shot by John Wilkes Booth, died last night in her home at 500 Madison Avenue. She was born in this city, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Copcott. She was married to Dr. Leale in September, 1867. Her husband, who survives her, is the only man living, except Robert T. Lincoln, who was with Abraham Lincoln when he died. Dr. Leale prolonged Lincoln's life several hours.

"Mrs. Leale leaves three daughters, Mrs. James Harper, of Pelham, and the Misses Lilian and Marion Leale, and two sons, Loyal Leale, of 500 Madison Avenue, and Dr. Edwin Leale of this city and Glen Cove. The latter was the physician of the late Henry P. Davison."

On Thursday, February 22d, at 10 A.M. the pupils assembled in the chapel to celebrate Washington's Birthday. The band played the "Star Spangled Banner." George Washington and his wonderful and patriotic career was explained by Principal Isaac B. Gardner; "President Thomas Jefferson," by Dr. Thomas F. Fox; "President Abraham Lincoln," by Professor William G. Jones; "The Control of the Government," by Professor Edward S. Burdick; "President Woodrow Wilson," by Professor Frank S. Thomson; and "President William McKinley," by Professor Edmisten W. Les.

Mrs. Gardner, wife of the Principal, has returned from a delightful trip to Pasadena, California, where she visited her mother and brothers. Mrs. Gardner went out to California by way of the Northwest, visiting in Portland, Oregon, for a few days. She returned by the Southern route, stopping in Little Rock, her former home, for a few weeks.

The Adrasian Society went to the Costello Theatre, on Tuesday evening, February 20th, to see "Ninety-Nine."

On Washington's Birthday, six basket ball games took place in our gymnasium in the afternoon. The first game was between the Midget and Arrow A. C. tossers. There was quite a crowd of visitors to see the games. We expected that our players would win all six games, but two of the teams lost. The Fanwood Sixth lost to the Arrow A. C. Five by the score of 33 to 12, and the Saccons won 24-19 from the Fanwood.

The final game was played between the Alphabet Seniors and the Fanwood Seniors. Our boys easily defeated their opponents in both halves. Our teamwork was brilliant in the second half, which got our rivals confused. We made twenty goals without caging a foul from a free try.

Our strong and clever guards kept down the Alphabet score. They got only one goal and a foul in the second half, but they did very well in the first half.

The time of period—Fifteen minutes each. Referee—Lieutenant Frank Lux. Timekeeper—Cadet Corporal Charles Knoblock. Scorers—Cadet Adjutant Lester LeRoy Cahill and Cadet Musician D. Aellis.

On Thursday morning last, the Basket Ball Girls of the B. A. A. left here for the New Jersey School for the Deaf and Dumb, to play with their girls on their court. The B. A. A. Five was beaten by the big score of 26-3. Our girls had a pleasant time there, and they returned here late in the night. Some of them got injured by their rough playing opponents. Our girls wish to play with the New Jersey Deaf School on our court soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris L. Wofford have moved to Johnson City, Tennessee—the home of Mr. Wofford—where he has been appointed General Agent for the Prudential Life Insurance Company. Mrs. Wofford was formerly Miss Estelle Allison Gardner, daughter of Principal Isaac B. Gardner and Mrs. Gardner, and was married to Mr. Wofford here at the Institution last July. Mrs. Wofford was very popular and will be greatly missed by her many friends in the Institution.

ROBERT AND LESTER.

Gallaudet College.

The Rev. Charles Williams, '07, was a visitor Sunday. Altho it has been sixteen years since Mr. Williams left here he says it seems as the only a short while to him. He is now working throughout Virginia.

The Literary Society had a short yet interesting meeting Friday evening.

The usual debate was omitted to allow the members to see the game with the Lynchburg College team.

The programme was as follows: Reading—"The Monkey's Paw." Mr. Griffing, '24.
Dialogue—"Conversation." Messrs. Langenberg, '24, Beanchamp, '26.
Declamation—"My Old Kentucky Home" Mr. Grow, P.C.

The college wrestling team went over to the Washington Boat Club, Friday night, to compete in the tryouts for the South Atlantic tourney in Baltimore. The team did well. Messrs. Orman, Cherry, Benedict, Capt. Jones and Lucado competed.

Messrs. Benedict and Lucado were successful. However it was found that Benedict had wrestled with the same man that had defeated Cherry and was thus disqualified from the Baltimore meet.

Mr. Lucado made the trip but was defeated. This is Lucado's first year at wrestling.

The Y.M.C.A. gave a public meeting on Sunday afternoon and rendered a programme on "patriotism."

The O. W. L. S. held a splendid public meeting Saturday night, the 17th, they presented a short play, "The Court of Justice," in which all the players were charming. Then there were five classical dances which the audience enjoyed.

The meeting closed with the declamation, "The Pipes of Lucknow," by Miss Pusrin, '23.

It was easily the most successful meeting the O. W. L. S. have given in a long while.

Much credit is due to the managers: Messrs. Wilson, Moss, Pence, Miss Elizabeth Peet, and last but not least, to the boys who aided with the scenery.

There were quite a few visitors over the week end, drawn hither by a common interest, the gathering of the classes, the O. W. L. S. and the Kappa Gamma Fraternity.

Mr. Horace Bell, of Arkansas, a member of the Preparatory class has left the College. He was not satisfied with the course here and decided to go to work.

The boys have enjoyed some good skating this week on the reflecting pool in front of the Lincoln Memorial.

The northerners have their inning and enjoy laughing at the southerners, who haven't mastered the art of skating.

John Boatwright essayed to learn to skate Saturday morning, but found the ice too hard.

Messrs. Jack Seipp and Harry Danofsky both broke through up to their waists. It was a nice cool time coming home to change clothes.

Lynchburg, 34 Gallaudet, 37

The varsity five is on a winning streak and delighted the rooters by winning another beautiful game from the fast Lynchburg College team. Boatwright, Davis and Bradley were the shining lights for our team, while Witt of the visitors, nearly put the game on ice by scoring five field goals in quick succession. It was up to LaFountain to make the most spectacular shot of the game. It went from the middle of the floor earlier in the game and put a lot of heart into our team. The score was 26 to 16 in our favor at the end of the first half. The visitors made a great spurt in the second half, but couldn't quite make it.

Subs.—Kohn for LaFountain, Stern for Baynes, LaF. for Davis, N. Oliver for Thomas, Nel for Woodside. Field Goals: Boatwright, 6; Davis, 6; Baynes, LaFountain, Bradley, Witt, 5; T. Oliver, 3; Suttenfield, 3; N. Oliver, 2; Foul Goals: Bradley, 7 out of 14, Witt, 8 out of 12.

N. P. S., 20 Gallaudet, 9

The girls ran onto a snag in the National Park Seminary five Saturday afternoon, on the latter's floor, and had to take the short end of the score. They were all 'way off form and had a lot of trouble with the slick floor out there. No team can expect to win all the time, however. The boys were peeved at having had to miss the game, but the dear at N. P. S. would positively not hear of it.

The Harrisonburg, Va., Normal School has been booked for a game here on March the ninth.

The fifteen suppliants for the Kappa Gamma fraternity passed the acid test Saturday night, February the twenty-fourth, and thus Clarence Baldwin, '23, Uriel Jones, Nathan Lahn, Harland Markel, Eugene McConnell, Nathan Zimble, of class '24, Chas. Falk, Ben Yaffey, John Penn, Edwin Benedict of class '25, James Beauchamp, Robert Fletcher, Byron Burnes, Robert Bradley, and Edward Koercher of class '26, are now members of the fraternity.

Greetings!

Miss Grace D. Coleman dean at Fowler Hall, has been in the hospital for the past week, where she underwent a slight operation. The Co-eds have been lost during her absence. Miss Coleman is expected back at the college in a couple of days.

Clarence Baldwin was called home early Sunday morning by the illness of a near relative. Here's hoping for his speedy return to the Green.

The suppliants for the Kappa Gamma entertained the student body with a couple of vaudeville sketches after dinner February the twenty-second. The program consisted of a farce, "Oil Stock," and a tragedy "Doings of the Klan." The players did well.

The Prep. basket-ball team journeyed over to Frederick Saturday, the twenty-fourth, for a game with the Maryland School.

We are sorry to say they lost. The defeat was rather unexpected, as the Preps have an unusually strong team this year.

The score was 28 to 24. A return game may be played here later. We're hoping the P. C.'s won't be so over-confident next time.

The track team entered the Georgetown track meet at the Convention Hall here on the twenty-second. With the exception of Harmsen, the North Dakota flier, the men did not make much of a showing. Harmsen won his heat in the fifty yard dash and tied with the man in the hurdlers, but was for some unknown reason not called into semi finals. Stebbins and Lucado entered the mile and half mile respectively, but were pitted against some of the best intercollegiate runners in the east.

The relay team lost to the George Washington team in spite of Harmsen's magnificent effort to overhaul the George Washington man. He gained twenty yards at least. The relay team ran in the order named: Captain Connor, Williams, Beauchamp and Harmsen.

LOYOLA, 37 GALLAUDET, 34

The varsity five lost its last game of the season in a thriller with the Loyola College quintet on the twenty-second. The score was tied at the end of the second half, so they played a five-minute extra session. It was nip and tuck all the way. The Loyola team had tall husky players, which made even Harry Baynes, our lengthy captain, look small. They could pass, dribble and shoot, and it's no disgrace to have lost to a team like that.

The score was tied at least four times during the game. Boatwright and La Fountain divide scoring honors, while Bradley played a fine guarding game. Capt. Baynes was the only one who could hold his own with those fellows in the leap for the ball.

With this game Captain Baynes and LaFountain have played their last. They graduate in June, and this branch of sport will lose two splendid tossers in these two men. We still have Boatwright, who is now playing a brand of basket ball that is something short of marvelous.

Bradley is still here and with more experience he will develop a system of guarding that will prevent a forward from ever seeing the basket.

Davis is playing his first year in fast company,—but watch this boy. The scrub affords a wealth of material, so the future is bright.

Loyola F. Gallaudet
Morton F. Boatwright
Kelly F. Davis
Cumming C. Baynes
Lacy G. LaFountain
O'Connor G. Bradley

Substitutes—Metty for Davis, Austin for Metty. Field goals—Boatwright 4, LaFountain 4, Baynes 1, Davis 2, Kelly 6, Bradley 2, Morton 4, Cummings 4, Lacy. Fouls—Bradley 8 out of 12, Cummings 5 out of 8.

Ted Griffing, '24, of Oklahoma, who has managed the team, deserves a lot of praise for his untiring efforts and the fine list of teams that he brought here. All the games have been of high class and have afforded the students excellent entertainment.

His balance is on the right side of the ledger too.

Mrs. Hall entertained the Young men and women of the Senior and Junior classes, also the young women of the Sophomore class Friday evening, the 23d, at No. 1 Faculty Row, from eight to 10 P.M. These young people report a most wonderful time.

The Co-eds lost their return game to the Wilson Normal School team, or the latter's floor, on the twenty-fourth.

It was a thrilling, speedy game, and the closeness of the score shows how hard they fought. Our girls had the misfortune of having a large number of fouls called on them, which decided the game.

Miss Sandberg as usual led in the scoring. Our guards, Misses Clemon and Rogers, did fine work.

The team has improved splendidly all along—

The line up is—

W. N., 14 Gallaudet, 13
Emers F. Sandberg
Young F. Dobson
Jackson C. Newton
Garinchain S. C. Moss
Gilchrist G. Rogers
Rainey G. Clemons

Field goals—Sandberg, 6; Emers, 3; Young, 3; Dobson, Fouls—Sandberg, 2; Emers, 5; Young, 1.

Miss Bulger, P. C., was called to home by the death of her father. She has returned to the Green, however, to resume her studies. She has our deepest sympathy on her great loss.

Messrs. Stegmerten and Dobbins from over the Baltimore way were week-end guests.

Strangler Lewis Here.

Ed. Lewis, world's champion heavyweight wrestler, who has gained the title of "Strangler" through the use of his favorite headlock, was in Fulton last week and paid us a visit, much to the delight of the many hero worshippers on the boys' side to whom his name has been known.

He happened to meet one of our little boys, Charles Bass, in a dentist's office in town and became interested in him. Charles, by the way, is a wrestling fan and would do anything to see a match. Lewis took a fancy to him and invited him to be his guest at supper and at the match that night.

Then the champion went over to the school with his protegee and spent half an hour there. He demonstrated his famous headlock on Mr. Shipman, whom he lifted like a child in spite of his 200 pounds and over. Followed by an admiring crowd he inspected the club rooms and a few other places.

That evening, little Charles Bass promptly occupied a seat on the stage of Pratt's Theatre, beside the champion, the cynosure of all eyes. Lewis called his attention to the presence in the audience of several in uniform from the school, and then as the referee called the contestants, he discarded his bathrobe and gave it to Charles to hold.

Lewis won easily. His opponent was of only mediocre ability and Lewis played with him. It was only another day's work for the champion, but for one boy it was a memory to be treasured, a tale to be told for years to come.—Missouri Record.

DENVER.

Saturday evening, February 17th, Superintendent T. S. McAloney made his bow to a Denver audience. A record breaking crowd turned out and his talk was a rare treat.

Dr. McAloney said that as he was a stranger he felt that he should tell something of himself, and this he did in a very interesting way. Incidentally he announced that he had severed all connection with the School for the Blind in Pittsburgh, and would henceforth devote himself to Colorado. This was good news.

Dr. and Mrs. McAloney made a host of friends while here, and the deaf of Denver will give him their whole-hearted co-operation in his efforts.

Dr. McAloney also spoke of the Code and Lambert bills now before the legislature.

Colorado deaf are thoroughly aroused over the Code bill now before the legislature. This bill would put the School for the Deaf and Blind in the charitable class along with the Bug House at Pueblo, the Pen. at Canon City, Reform Schools, etc. This bill happens to be a pet of Gov. Sweet.

It was Geo. W. Veditz who first holed "Ispy," and suggested to Homer E. Grace that something be done about it. Mr. Grace was willing, and after receiving further suggestions from Mr. Veditz, he drew up a petition setting forth the objections the deaf had to such classification, etc. Saturday morning, Feb. 17th, he with A. S. Kent called on the Governor and presented the petition. Gov. Sweet has a pleasant smile and appears to be a kindly man, who will listen to those who approach him in the proper way. After reading the petition he wrote on a pad that we were correct, and that the matter had been called to his attention by the trustees of the school, and it would be corrected. We call that quick action. Now it appears the Code bill is doomed. Gov. Sweet is a Democrat and the legislature has a majority on the Republican side.

The Lambert bill, sponsored by Republicans, would place the school under a board of control, the board to have power to purchase all supplies for all State institutions of every kind from College to Pen. Equally as bad in some ways, only it leaves the school in the educational class. Dr. McAloney has been to see Gov. Sweet about the matter, and our thanks are due him for this.

February 10th a bunch of young sports headed by Bob Frewing journeyed to Colorado Springs by auto, with the avowed purpose of knocking the tar out of the School for the Deaf basketball quintet. They did pretty well, considering they only made two points to the kids' forty-nine. Those making the trip were Frewing, Tansey, Alford, Wagner, Herzberger.

Friday, February 16th, the School for the Deaf basketball team made its debut in Denver, meeting the Don Long Terrors and losing by a score of 22 to 20. The Terrors are one of the strongest teams in Denver. It is very likely a return game will be played soon.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Cloud will be in Denver February 24th. He will give a lecture the evening of the 24th and 25th, and services at St. Mark's Church on Sunday. Dr. Cloud's visits are greatly appreciated.

Homer E. Grace is scheduled to give a reading to the Bible Class in the near future.

At last F. A. Lessley got started for Chicago, and many are the tales that meander west from the windy city about his wanderings. This being Frank's first visit to a city bigger than Denver, he promptly got lost and all mixed up. It being a case of all dressed up and no place to go, 'cause he couldn't get anywhere. However, the deaf of Chicago took him in tow and he is seeing things. Mr. Lessley was sent to Chicago by the Bankers Supply Co. to set up a new press in their plant. No doubt he heartily wishes himself back in Denver, where its warm and sunny.

The Liberty Club met at Mrs. Lessley's home, February 15th.

The newly organized Ladies' Aid Society met in the Parish Hall of St. Mark's Church February 15th.

Mrs. S. Jonovick is back home, after visiting her folks in Idaho Springs, and Steve wears a wide grin now.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Leon Harvat, on February 4th, a boy.

J. H. Tuskey getting lonely went up to Ft. Collins to spend week-end with his wife.

A. L. Kent had a smash-up recently. Fortunately the other guy had to foot the bill of repairs in his car.

H. E. Grace is getting to be a classy painter, having recently painted two rooms in his domicile. His family are now hold up their heads to T. Y. Northern, who recently had his house decorated throughout.

St. Patrick Social, March 17th. Come dressed in all the finery of a true son or colleen of Erin and get in on two jitneys, otherwise it will cost you two bits.
